

Anti-Doping Commission:

Three members

Elected by the P/A upon proposal by the M/C

- 1 Chair (possibly a legal counsel)
- 1 Board Member (possibly a Vice President appointed by the President)
- 1 Doctor, member of the TUE committee

In charge of:

- the general anti-doping policy of the ISMF
- coordinating testing
- supervising testing
- monitoring target athletes
- monitoring retired athletes
- etc.

Plenary Assembly

Management Committee

President of ISMF

Receives results for sample A = suspends athlete until end of proceedings.
(7.1.1) + (7.1.6) +
(7.6.1.) + (7.6.2)

8.2

BOARD

Appoints:

- TUE
committee
(4.4.5.)
- Independent
Anti-Doping
Review Panel
(7.1.3)

Athlete

Anti-doping testing:

Delegated to organisers following agreement between the organiser, the national anti-doping agency, the national federation and ISMF.
During testing and under certain circumstances, the athlete may apply for a retroactive TUE.

WADA-AMA approved laboratory

- Communicates results to the Chair of the Independent Anti-Doping Review Panel 7.1.1.
- President of ISMF 7.1.1.

Independent Anti-Doping Review Panel:

Appointed by the Board

3 members with experience in anti-doping issues

- 1 chair, jurist (possibly a legal counsel)
- 1 doctor (preferentially, or a biologist, or a pharmacist)
- 1 jurist

Principle of confidentiality

- Receives the results
- Reviews TUE or lack of TUE
- Informs the athlete of his/her position, rights and proceedings
- Reviews incriminating and exculpatory evidence

National Federation

Anti-doping commission of the national federation of the athlete instigates a case according to ISMF regulations and at its own expense:

- National anti-doping commission and appeal
- National disciplinary commission and appeal

TUE Committee

Appointed by the Board (4.4.5.)

Three doctors, including a chair
Analyses TUE applications and delivers
TUEs (4.4.4) + (4.4.6)

Court of Arbitration
for Sport